BRISTOL PALIN'S HUSBAND DAKOTA MEYER HAS REPORTEDLY FILED FOR DIVORCE AFTER 1.5 YEARS OF MARRIAGE

Bristol Palin's husband Dakota Meyer has filed for divorce after just two years of marriage. Meyer, 29, is the father of Palin's two youngest children, daughters Atlee Bay, who is nine months old, and Sailor Grace, 2. The pair have been living separately since Christmas 2017, when Meyer moved out of the family home, filing for divorce two weeks ago.

Prior to their June 2016 wedding, the couple briefly separated and postponed their original wedding date, which had been set for May 2015. But after reuniting and celebrating their wedding the following year, the couple said they had worked through their problems and were happy they had tied the knot.

"Life is full of ups and downs but in the end, you'll end up where you're supposed to be. We are so happy to share with loved ones the wonderful news that we got married!" they said in an interview with Entertainment Tonight in 2016. "Hard work and God's grace are the foundation of our new life together. With the love and support of our family, we know we can get through anything," they added.

ARTIST BEHIND HISTORIC CHE GUEVARA POSTER TURNS HIS BRUSH TO PALESTINIAN TEEN JAILED BY ISRAEL

Fifty years ago, Irish artist Jim Fitzpatrick first shared his now-famous black-and-red poster print of Marxist revolutionary Che Guevara with the world. The image quickly became a universal symbol of resistance and anti-oppression following Guevara’s death in 1967 and is recognized across the globe. Now, Fitzpatrick is ready to do it again.

This time, the subject of his art isn’t a revolutionary leader, like Guevara. It’s a 17-year-old Palestinian girl: Ahed Tamimi. A new print published on Fitzpatrick’s site—which is available to download for free—presents her as the “real Wonder Woman,” and the artist hopes it becomes as far spread as his earlier work.

Tamimi is the young teenager currently on trial at an Israeli military court in the West Bank, where she faces 12 charges, including incitement to violence and assaulting Israeli security forces. Tamimi’s family and supporters have said she was reacting to an earlier incident in which an Israeli soldier shot her 14-year-old cousin, Muhammad Tamimi, in the head with a rubber bullet at close range. Muhammad had to be placed in a 72-hour medically induced coma. He survived the gunshot but remains badly injured.
